REFLECTION

Dear parishioners, Friends and Visitors, welcome to St Mary on the Quay. This Sunday the Church celebrates Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

When Jesus first pronounced the Beatitudes, it turned the value systems of his hearers upside down. Riches, honour, good health were seen as signs of God's approval. They probably still are in most societies today. And it is true: we need these things and God does not grudge our having them. But they can get in the way of our growth in the love of God. We learn to rely on them, maybe become greedy and complacent and forget to give thanks. But when these things are taken from us, by whatever cause, then we touch the realities of our inner life. We may find that we depend on God more, and worry less. We find joy in small things and learn how to be compassionate to others. We have a truer sense of what is really important in life. God provides comfort in our grief and gives us the precious gift of peace. We grow towards God in the space we now have.
