REFLECTION

Dear parishioners, Friends and Visitors , welcome to St Mary on the Quay. This Sunday the Church celebrates Pentecost Sunday.

We are lucky in this part of the world because the liturgical seasons keep pace with the actual seasons of the year. At Christmas it is cold, echoing the barrenness of our lives and the need for Christ's coming, and at Easter we rejoice as the spring blossoms burst out of the cold bare earth. Now, at Pentecost, the trees are all parading their new growth, the flowers are beginning to run riot, young animals are enjoying the warm sun and it is easy to believe that the Holy Spirit is renewing the earth. On this Sunday of Pentecost the Holy Spirit comes to us all in renewed strength, bringing joy, peace, consolation for our woes, and hope and energy for the future. The many flags and the different national dresses in our church witness to the great love of God which embraces the whole world. Let us dedicate ourselves anew to the carrying out of God's will in our world, in the power of the Spirit.
