REFLECTION

Dear parishioners, Friends and Visitors , welcome to St Mary on the Quay. This Sunday the Church celebrates the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica, Remembrance Sunday.

Remembrance Sunday brings the whole reality of war to the front of our minds. The young men and women marching proudly right outside our church, together with the veterans with their walking aids and wheel chairs, make us think of the many armed conflicts currently happening, as well as those of the past. We lay wreaths in memory of the victims and pray for their souls in the church. Most of all, we pray for peace. But does anything change? Jesus warned us that there would be 'wars and rumours of wars' and so there have been throughout the centuries. But in spite of the tragedies and horrific events, we may still have hope. People have survived the most horrendous ordeals and witness to the presence of the Lord being with them in their troubles. So we may give thanks in steadfast hope that God can bring good out of any evil and that, at the end, we will find peace and rejoicing with our loved ones.
